GRAND JURY INDICTS FORMER COLLEGE PARK MAYOR ON EIGHTY COUNTS OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

UPPER MARLBORO, MD – A Prince George's County Grand Jury has returned an indictment against Patrick Wojahn, age 47, for 40 counts of possession of child pornography and 40 counts of possession with the intent to distribute.

In February of 2023, the Prince George's County Police Department received notification from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children that suspected child pornography had been distributed by someone in the County. Subsequently, the Department opened an investigation which led to Wojahn's arrest.

"This is an unprecedented case in our county in which a former elected official has been accused of a crime of this nature. We elect leaders with the expectation that they will serve, protect, and advocate for our children, families, and communities and not harm them in any way. The charges contained in the indictment are serious, and we will continue to work with law enforcement to investigate and follow any new leads that may be uncovered. It is important to note that the defendant is presumed innocent, and my office will continue to focus on achieving justice for the victims in this case," said State's Attorney Aisha Braveboy.

An indictment contains allegations that a defendant has committed a crime. Every defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
